Additional Information

High density Chitosan

Chitosan is a fibre extracted from the exoskeleton of shellfish, particularly from shells. It is mainly made up of quinine. Chitosan is the most common natural polysaccharide after cellulose. The Chitosan present in Grass 3QM has advantages over conventional Chitosan in that it has:

- A higher DAC index, (this index indicates its strength regarding lipids)
- More accurate dosage: The higher concentrations increases the amount of Chitosan present in each tablet.
