Description

Black cumin is especially appreciated by Muslims. Mohammed said that it "cures all diseases except death". In India, too, it is a seed widely used in Ayurvedic medicine for its various properties and different applications. Black cumin, whether in seed or oil, is introduced in all cultures of the world, being considered an essential in many of them.

Vitaroms Black Cumin Vegetable Oil is obtained by first cold pressing the ripe seeds of Nigella sativa. This ensures that all its components remain intact, thus providing great benefits to the body. It contains 20% of monounsaturated fatty acids (omega 9) and almost 60% of polyunsaturated acids (omega 6). It has numerous active principles that give it healing and antioxidant properties, etc... As well as a small amount of vitamins and minerals.
